

Present Perfect Simple or Present Perfect Continuous 1

Make sentences using the present perfect simple or continuous.

1. I _____ (read) this book for three hours.
2. She _____ (finish) her work already.
3. _____ (you/ever/try) skiing before?
4. He _____ (not/see) his old school friend since 2014.
5. We _____ (write) three essays today.
6. _____ (how long/they/study) for the test?
7. I _____ (solve) the problem successfully.
8. _____ (she/meet) her new colleagues yet?
9. He _____ (not/teach) mathematics in five years.
10. She _____ (not/tidy) her room as often as before.

Answers

1. I have been reading this book for three hours.
2. She has finished her work already.
3. Have you ever tried skiing before?
4. He hasn't seen his old school friend since 2014.
5. We have written three essays today.
6. How long have they been studying for the test?
7. I have solved the problem successfully.
8. Has she met her new colleagues yet?
9. He hasn't taught mathematics in five years.
10. She hasn't been tidying her room as often as before.

