

Future Continuous Mixed Forms 1

Make sentences using the correct future continuous form.

1. Tomorrow morning, I _____ (not/inspect) the garden.
2. By this time next year, they _____ (expand) their business internationally.
3. _____ (she/practice) for her piano recital when we visit?
4. _____ (what/you/research) at the library this afternoon?
5. He _____ (not/write) the final report during the meeting.
6. At midnight, the astronauts _____ (orbit) the Earth.
7. _____ (we/wait) for the bus when it starts raining?
8. The children _____ (decorate) the hall for the party later.
9. We _____ (not/attend) the conference tomorrow morning?
10. She _____ (join) us for the concert later.

Answers

1. Tomorrow morning, I won't be inspecting the garden.
2. By this time next year, they will be expanding their business internationally.
3. Will she be practicing for her piano recital when we visit?
4. What will you be researching at the library this afternoon?
5. He won't be writing the final report during the meeting.
6. At midnight, the astronauts will be orbiting the Earth.
7. Will we be waiting for the bus when it starts raining?
8. The children will be decorating the hall for the party later.
9. We won't be attending the conference tomorrow morning?
10. She will be joining us for the concert later.

